

I find that the Federal Communications Commission is trying to decide what is good for the general public to listen to or what is good to watch. Why is this?! DOES THE GOVERNMENT FEEL THAT WE ARE INCAPABLE OF MAKING THIS DECISION ON OUR OWN?

If you do not like the content of what you are listening to what do you do? YOU TURN THE CHANNEL! I am begining to think that I am living in a socialist country. And as a result I will not be voting For George W. Bush to run a second term. I made the mistake once, I will not make it again.
